August Wilson - Full Circle:

Two Plays. One Cast. A rare event not to be missed!

Gem of the Ocean
by August Wilson
Directed by Kenny Leon

Radio Golf
by August Wilson
Directed by Kent Gash

An evocative story of redemption and renewal, Gem of the Ocean is set against the legacy of emancipation in 1904 Pittsburgh. Radio Golf then brings audiences back to Pittsburgh 90 years later as a successful real estate entrepreneur launches his campaign to become the city's first black mayor.

Join the Alliance, in partnership with True Colors, as we present August Wilson's two final plays that bring the power of legacy in a rare theatrical event as Gem of the Ocean and Radio Golf are performed in rotating repertory, each featuring the same actors. (Contains Adult content, Language & Themes)
